

Triennial 2000 Faculty & Presentation Data

Dr. Paul Bell	Disability I	February 29 th 8:45-9:45 a.m.
	Disability II	March 4 th 10:15-11 a.m.

Dr. Bell is VP and Medical Director of ING Reinsurance. He wrote the section on disability for Brackenridge and Elder's Medical Selection of Life Risks. He served on the committee of the American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians in 1994 and was a faculty member for the 9th & 10th Triennial Courses. Please see his CV for other invited speaking engagements on disability as well as his publications on disability.

Dr. Shanklin Cannon	Oncology Overview	February 29 th 7:45-8:45 a.m.
	Oncology I	Several sessions

Dr. Cannon was a highly rated member of the faculty of the 9th & 10th Triennial Courses. He completed a fellowship in oncology at Baylor College of Medicine and spent 2 years in cancer epidemiology in the Chronic Diseases Division, Bureau of Epidemiology, Centers for Disease Control. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Oncology, and Insurance Medicine. Dr. Cannon was in private practice in medical Oncology prior to joining Northwestern Mutual Life, where he is Medical Director of Life Products/Research.

Dr. Robert Coates	Alcohol and Substance Abuse	Several sessions
--------------------------	-----------------------------	------------------

Dr. Coates was a highly rated member of the faculty of the 10th Triennial Course. He was in private practice in Internal Medicine in Minneapolis for 18 years and has worked at Allianz Life for 15 years. He was a lecturer on alcoholism and a tutor in the chemical dependency module for the Internal Medicine residents at Abbott-Northwestern Hospital. He also served on the hospital's Chemical Dependency Committee and has done over 1000 physical exams on patients in the chemical dependency unit. Dr. Coates is board-certified in Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine.

Dr. Gordon Cumming	Congenital Heart Disease lecture	March 4 th 8-9 a.m.
	Congenital Heart Disease	Several sessions

Dr. Cumming was a Special Fellow in Cardiovascular Disease at The Cleveland Clinic from 1956-58 and became a Fellow, American College of Cardiology in 1970. From 1958-1981 he was Head, Department of Cardiology, Children's Hospital of Winnipeg. He has been on the faculty of the Triennial Course over the years and has received excellent reviews. His CV is replete with experience, research interests and he has published approximately 140 articles.

Dr. David Duddlestone	Acquired Heart Disease II	Several sessions
------------------------------	---------------------------	------------------

Dr. Duddlestone trained in Internal Medicine and was in private practice from 1985-1994. He planned the scientific meetings for the Mississippi State Medical Association from 1992-1994. He is currently a Vice President at Southern Farm Bureau Life Insurance Company. Dr. Duddlestone is a returning faculty member in this highly rated workshop.

Dr. Martin Engman	Mortality & International Underwriting Pulmonary Disorders X-ray Conference	March 2 nd 8:45-9:45 a.m. Several sessions March 1 st 7-8 p.m.
--------------------------	---	--

Dr. Engman is board certified in Internal Medicine, Pulmonary Medicine, and Critical Care Medicine and is a Diplomat of the American Board of Sleep Medicine. In 1995 he was the associate editor of The Journal of Insurance Medicine. Dr. Engman has given several lectures since 1991 on underwriting topics and is Director of Medical Research at Lincoln National Reinsurance Company. His presentation on Mortality & International Underwriting received very favorable feedback at the 10th Triennial. He will revisit that topic and also join Dr. Richie in the Pulmonary Disorders workshop this time.

Dr. Robert Frank, Jr.	MIB	March 4 th 11 a.m.-noon
------------------------------	-----	------------------------------------

Dr. Frank has a strong background in Insurance Medicine education and experience. He is the Education Vice President for AAIM and has served in a leadership capacity in several other areas having to do with education. He has 22 years of Insurance Medicine experience at Nationwide Insurance, where is now AVP-Medical Director.

Dr. Michael Fulks	Introduction to Mortality Mortality Statistics	February 28 th 8-9 a.m. Several sessions
--------------------------	---	--

Dr. Fulks joins the Triennial faculty with excellent credentials from his role as Director of the Introductory Course for new medical directors. He is board-certified in both Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine. His work as VP and Medical Director of Merrill Lynch Insurance Group has included developing an underwriting approach for older age clientele, researching and writing their underwriting manual, and extensive training.

Dr Elizabeth Gazda-Smith	Neurological & Psychiatric Disorders	Several sessions
---------------------------------	--------------------------------------	------------------

Dr. Gazda-Smith was in the private practice of Internal Medicine prior to joining The Prudential in 1990, where she is VP and Chief Medical Officer. She is board-certified in Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine. Dr. Gazda-Smith has published a multitude of articles on a variety of topics in the field of Insurance Medicine. She has experience as a planner and moderator of an AAIM scientific program and has led a highly rated workshop at an AAIM annual meeting.

Dr. Linda Goodwin	Neurological & Psychiatric Disorders	Several sessions
--------------------------	--------------------------------------	------------------

Dr. Goodwin has spoken and written on a wide variety of topics throughout the industry, particularly in the field of Geriatric Medicine. She co-authored the section on “Underwriting the Elderly” in Medical Selection of Life Risks. She is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Insurance Medicine, and Geriatrics. Dr. Goodwin has seven years of experience in Insurance Medicine and is VP and Reinsurance Medical Director for Transamerica Reinsurance Company.

Dr. Paul Hankwitz	Long Term Care & Underwriting the Elderly Renal Disorders & Hypertension	March 4 th 9-10 a.m. Several sessions
--------------------------	---	---

Dr. Hankwitz trained in Internal Medicine and in 1988 had Geriatrics (Added Qualifications). He is a member of the American Geriatrics Society. He has also had some training in Nephrology. From 1992-1995 he was a clinical professor of medicine (Geriatrics/Gerontology) at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee. He is VP and Chief Medical Director at Transamerica Life.

Dr. Wayne Heidenreich                      Immunology/Rheumatology                      Several sessions

Dr. Heidenreich is a new faculty member who has written and spoken in the industry on the identification and mortality risks of connective tissue disease. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine and practiced Internal Medicine for 8 years before entering Insurance Medicine. He has 6 years of experience in Insurance Medicine and is a Medical Director at Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Dr. RK Illango                                      Oncology II                                      Several sessions

Dr. Illango is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Hematology and Insurance Medicine. He practice Hematology-Oncology for six years. He has been involved with Insurance Medicine since 1985 and is VP & Medical Director of Midland Life Insurance. He published an article on non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in JIM and has received excellent reviews for his speaking on Hematology-Oncology topics in the industry.

Dr. Robert Kinney                              Acquired Heart Disease I                      Several sessions

Dr. Kinney is a new faculty member who has a quality teaching background in the Introductory Course in Insurance Medicine. He is board certified in both Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine. Dr. Kinney has 7 years of experience in Insurance Medicine and is VP & Medical Director of Phoenix Home Life Mutual Insurance Company.

Dr. Lorraine Kretchman                      Gastrointestinal Disorders                      Several sessions

Dr. Kretchman is a returning faculty member who has done this workshop in 1991, 1994, & 1997. She is currently working part-time for Reliastar and is also practicing Internal Medicine in Minneapolis. She trained in Internal Medicine at Abbott-Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis. Dr. Kretchman's session has been consistently highly rated.

Dr. Ross MacKenzie                              Decision Making                              March 2nd 7:45-8:45 a.m.
Acquired Heart Disease II                      Several sessions

Dr. MacKenzie has a specialty in Cardiology. He was on the faculty of medicine at McGill University and was also Associate Professor of Medicine and Program Director for Cardiology at Dalhousie University until joining Sun Life in 1988. He is currently on the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto and a Cardiologist at The Toronto Hospital. He is a past member of the Board of Governors of the American College of Cardiology and has done extensive research in the field of ischemic heart disease. Dr. MacKenzie has written the chapter on Coronary Heart Disease in the new edition of Brackenridge's Medical Selection of Life Risks. He is a perennially highly rated faculty member for the Triennial Course.

Dr. Alison Moy                                      Endocrinology lecture                              March 3rd 8:45-9:45 a.m.
Endocrine Disorders                              Several sessions

Dr. Moy brings to her role as a new member of the faculty an exceptionally strong background in endocrinology. She completed a fellowship in Endocrinology, Diabetes, and Metabolism at Yale University in 1994. She was in the private practice of Internal Medicine, Endocrinology, Diabetes, and Metabolism prior to her entering Insurance Medicine. She is board-certified in Internal Medicine and in the American Board of Endocrinology, Diabetes, and Metabolism. Dr. Moy has spoken and written widely on topics in the fields of Endocrinology and Insurance Medicine.

Dr. Thomas Murphy, Jr.                      Renal Disorders &                              Several sessions
Hypertension

Dr. Murphy is a new faculty member with a strong background in Nephrology. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Nephrology, and Critical Care Medicine. He was in the private practice of Nephrology for 17 years prior to his entering the field of Insurance Medicine in 1994. He is VP-Medical Director of Jefferson-Pilot Financial.

Dr. Robert Pokorski	Mortality Methodology & Analysis lecture Medical Statistics	February 28 th 10:15-11:45 a.m.  Several sessions
----------------------------	---	--

Dr. Pokorski is VP of Worldwide Medical Research & Development for General & Cologne Life Re and is editor of Risk Insights. He has extensive experience the field of medical statistics and is a returning faculty member. He was on the Editorial Board of Mortality and Morbidity Methodology, and reviewer for Journal of Insurance Medicine and International Editor of Journal of Insurance Medicine. He has written several articles and given several presentations on medical statistics in Insurance Medicine. Please see his CV for details.

Dr. Rodney Richie	Pulmonary Disorders X-ray Conference	Several sessions March 1 st 7-8 p.m.
--------------------------	---	--

Dr. Richie is board-certified in Internal Medicine and Pulmonary Disease. He practices Pulmonary Disease and Critical Care Medicine, is Medical Director of Texas Life, VP of Inpatient Medical Services (IMS), a national managed care company, Assistant Professor of Medicine at Baylor, and Associate Professor of Medicine at the University of Texas. He is highly regarded for his knowledge and teaching skills both inside and outside the insurance industry.

Dr. Nigel Roberts	Congenital Heart Disease	Several sessions
--------------------------	--------------------------	------------------

Dr. Roberts is a new faculty member who has a strong background in Cardiology and Insurance Medicine. He is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology and is the editor of the Journal of Insurance. He has held several executive positions in the field of Insurance Medicine and has a great interest and experience in education. Please see his CV for details.

Dr. Nina Smith	Endocrine Disorders	Several sessions
-----------------------	---------------------	------------------

Dr. Smith has been on the faculty of the Triennial Course since 1991, and her workshop in Endocrine Disorders received highly favorable evaluations. She is board-certified in Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine. Dr. Smith has given several presentations at industry meetings on topics of diabetes. Please see her CV for titles of her many presentations and published articles.

Dr. Susan Sokoloski	Oncology II	Several session
----------------------------	-------------	-----------------

Dr. Sokoloski is a returning faculty member who was highly rated in this workshop in 1997. She trained in anatomic and clinical pathology at The Hartford Hospital and is board-certified in Insurance Medicine. Dr. Sokoloski has extensive and varied experience in many aspects of Insurance Medicine, and has written and spoken on the topic of underwriting women's health concerns.

Dr. Patrick Snow	Immunology/Rheumatology	Several sessions
-------------------------	-------------------------	------------------

Dr. Snow is VP and Medical Director for Aid Association for Lutherans. He is board-certified in Family Practice and also in Insurance Medicine. Dr. Snow contributed to the current edition of Medical Selection of Life Risks and has authored articles in other industry publications. He is Secretary Treasurer of the Board of Insurance Medicine and a member of the ACLI Medical Section Board of Managers.

Dr. John Swanson	Breast Cancer Oncology I	March 3 rd 7:45-8:45 a.m. Several sessions
-------------------------	-----------------------------	--

Dr. Swanson is a returning perennially highly rated faculty member for The Triennial Course. His training is in Internal Medicine and pathology and he was in private practice of pathology from 1965-88. He is board-certified in Anatomic Pathology, Clinical Pathology, and Insurance Medicine. He has been VP & Medical Director of Lutheran Brotherhood since 1983. Dr. Swanson is a frequent workshop instructor and platform speaker at industry meetings who highly regarded for his knowledge and teaching abilities.

